Please expand if you are interested in adopting a Neapolitan Mastiff or Old English Mastiff and share with us what research you have done re: this breed? [If you are not applying for a Mastiff, please ignore this question and move on to the next question]

How much do you think it costs to properly care for a canine companion on a monthly or annual basis?

What have been your experiences in providing proper veterinarian care? Have you been involved in providing specialty care for your canine companion? Have your experiences been primarily around vaccinations only? Are you prepared financially to properly care for a canine companion and what does the word “properly” mean to you and your family specific to providing care? For example, what type of diet are you familiar, what about joint supplements and perhaps proper pain medication for chronic pain, sometimes typical for a more senior companion?

What are the characteristics you are searching for in a canine companion and why are you investigating rescue vs. purchasing a canine companion from a breeder?

How many dogs can you legally have where you live?

Name, address and phone number of your current and/or previous Veterinarian?

Name, address and phone number of three references (preferably those familiar with your care of animals & not directly related to you):
